Chief, Hawaii Bureau

30 September 1948

Chief, FBIB

Communication Channels between
Kauai and Washington

1. Reference is made to paragraph 1 of your memorandum dated 20 September 1948 to Chief, FBIB, subject "Significant Developments at Hawaii Bureau."

2. It has been noted that the Army now plans to continue their communication system on the Island of Kauai and that negotiations for the sale or lease of these communication channels to the Mutual Telephone Company have been abandoned. Therefore no change is contemplated in the communication service for the Hawaii Bureau.

3. You are requested to keep this office informed of any developments relative to this matter and early advice is desired if any change becomes apparent at your end.
